

CSA Board of Directors Resolution to Rename the Academy in honor of Charyl Stockwell - June 2001

Whereas Charyl Helen Stockwell was the inspiration for the founding of Livingston Developmental Academy and,

Whereas Charyl was a student at Livingston Developmental Academy from its inception in September 1996 until her graduation in June 2001 and,

Whereas Charyl has been a model student to help staff develop innovative programs and,

Whereas Charyl's courage in her illness has given those associated with the Academy hope and admiration and,

*Whereas the Parent Council and the Teacher Management Team proposed that the building that houses Livingston Developmental Academy be named the Charyl Stockwell Academy,*

Therefore, be it resolved that from this day forward the building shall be so named in memory of, and in honor to, Charyl Helen Stockwell.